

Norfolk Coast Cycleway Explorers

Loops off the Norfolk Coast Cycleway

9: Broads explorer (23 miles)

An easy riding loop includes a walking link option. A variety of Broadland views along with a couple of villages in the eastern area of the Broads

① St Georges Church, Rollsby. ② St Margaret's Church in Burgh St Margaret (Fleggborough) this area was an island in Roman times and still sometimes referred to as Flegg Island. ③ Thurne, St Edmund the King Martyr Church has a unusual squint hole in the base of the tower that allowed leppers to attend worship. Extensive views of the Broadland landscape can be seen from the churchyard. ④ River access and two drainage mills. At Repps (⑥ St Peter's Church) continue down to the River Thurne ⑤

OPTION to take a riverside walk into Potter Heigham with its holiday boat hire yards, shops and eateries and notably the quaint Medieaval bridge where craft take on the services

The Norfolk Coast area of outstanding natural beauty (AONB) is one of 46 AONBs in the UK, which together with 15 national parks comprise our finest landscapes, rich in wildlife and cultural heritage.

The Norfolk Coast Partnership is funded by Defra and local authorities to bring local organisations together to conserve and enhance the area's natural beauty and promote its sustainable use and enjoyment.

of a bridge pilot during the summer. St Nicholas Church has 12th Century round tower with an 14th Century octagonal extension. The riverside walk continues along under the modern road bridge through to Martham ⑨ where there are a couple of options to cycle from the river into the village.

From Repps ⑤ follow the road back through the village and taking care at the staggered junction ⑦ follow the road back into Rollsby ① and taking care crossing the A149 cycle into Martham.

Martham ⑧ is from the Saxon 'home of the martens (polecats) which once abounded in the area. Find Black Street, the haunt of funerals and White Street, the scene of weddings. From Martham it is a short distance to the Cycleway at West Somerton.
